What we do

How does USEFCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Do we share your mobile/cell number with anyone outside USEFCU?

No, we do not. We will not share mobile information with third parties or affiliates for marketing or promotional purposes.

How does USEFCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or deposit money
- Apply for a loan or pay bills
- Use your credit or debit cards

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
