What we do

How does USE FCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does USE FCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or deposit money
- Apply for a loan or pay bills
- Use your credit or debit cards

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- USE FCU does not have any.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- USE FCU does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- For example, credit companies and insurance companies.
